The Norwegian guitarist Håkon Storm and bassist Thomas Winther Andersen worked together in different combinations for more than two decades. Winther- Storm is their latest quartet. In 2011 the band toured in the Netherlands, Germany and Norway. Now their 2nd album titled Spinnaker (NORCD 1217) is released. Their first album Patchwork (NORCD 1096) was released in 2010.

The music is exceptionally beautiful and contemplative, at moments intense and rockish. The four musicians blend very well together and uniquely fill the spinnaker. Tor Hammarø www.side3.no

Patchwork is joy from the first second. It is both modern and anchored in tradition. Let's hope Winther Storm will make more albums. This is a recommendation. 19 of 20 ein Ubevlieger - Ingo Andruschkewitsch - www.musikansich.de Winther-Storm blends effectively an acoustic and electric sound into a dynamic whole. The repertoire is composed by H. Storm and Winther Andersen. Inspiration comes from a wide spectrum of styles from the past 50 years.

Håkon Storm (guitar) has worked with some of the best and most respected musicians in Norway. He teaches guitar, ensemble, rhythmic training, composition, theory and improvisation classes at the Norwegian State Academy of Music. A prolific composer, he has produced works for big band and small jazz ensembles. He regularly performs with his own bands. Håkon has toured several times in Japan and the USA, as well as Europe, playing with groups in all formats. In 2011 he also released the solo album Zinober (NORCD 1105)

Thomas Winther Andersen (bass) has toured in Europe and the USA with different musicians and bands. Some of the players Thomas has worked with are: Lee Konitz, Sheila Jordan, Robert Rook, Michiel Borstlap, John Engels and Jasper Blom. Thomas has composed many pieces for various jazz ensembles, big band and chamber music. His compositions have been broadcast on Norwegian and Dutch radio and many of them are available on CD recordings. This is Thomas's seventh recording on Norcd. Together with Håkon he also recorded two CDs with the band Line Up featuring Jimmy Halperin on saxophone: Out From A Cool Storage and Line Up

Argentine saxophonist Natalio Sued has performed with many of the finest local musicians in Buenos Aires. In 2001 he moved to Amsterdam. In the Netherlands he has developed into a player and composer with a very distinct sound. He has played with Ernesto Jodos, Michael Moore, Guus Jansen, Jazz Orchestra of the Concertgebouw, Rodrigo Dominguez and many others. He has also composed and played for the contemporary big band "Tetzepi". In 2003 Natalio received the prize as best soloist at the Avignon Jazz Festival (France).

Mark Coehoorn is one of the new young talents on the Dutch jazz scene. He started playing drums at the age of six. He studied at the Amsterdam conservatory with Marcel Serierse and Lucas van Merwijk. Since Mark moved to Amsterdam, he has performed with many different artists, such as Benjamin Herman, Lars Dietrich, Joris Roelofs and Jesse van Ruller, to name just a few.
